Fort Stevenson State Park camping available to Norsk Hostfest participants

Those participating in Minot's Norsk Hostfest and looking for a place to camp should consider Fort Stevenson State Park, just a 45-minute drive from the Magic City.

FSSP manager Chad Trautman says the north loop of the campground will be kept in full service until the completion of the Norsk Hostfest on Oct. 5. Those wishing to camp at FSSP should call the park directly to determine the availability of camping spots.

It's a great time of year to visit Fort Stevenson State Park as the trees begin turning color.
