State Parks Day at the Capitol, Jan. 23

The North Dakota Parks and Recreation Department will again take over the State Capitol's Legislative Hall on Wednesday, Jan. 23, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. to offer legislators and visitors a glimpse of what the NDPRD offers.

NDPRD personnel will be on hand to answer questions and provide information about the department and the opportunities it provides. Also participating in parks day are several state park support groups and the North Dakota Recreation and Parks Association.

North Dakota State Park annual vehicle passes will be on sale and the NDPRD mascot, "Roscoe" the Raccoon, will be available for pictures. The first State Parks Day at the Capitol, held during the 2011 legislative session, was a great success as several hundred people made their way through the exhibits talking to NDPRD staff.
