Fort Stevenson Maple Syrup Event

Tapping Maple Trees for syrup in North Dakota? That is correct! Come out to Fort Stevenson State Park on April 11, at 10 a.m., to learn how to get maple syrup from trees.

Fort Stevenson State Park staff will demonstrate how to tap trees, collect sap and turn it into delicious maple syrup. Visitors will even get a chance to try some fresh syrup with a pancake. Park staff will share the history of maple syrup and what equipment is used.

Pre-registration is required for this event so please call the park office at 701 -337-5576 to reserve your spot. School groups and organizations are encouraged to call the park office to schedule a weekday demonstration.

Fort Stevenson State Park is located South of Garrison, North Dakota. For questions please call the park office 701-337-5576 or e-mail us at fssp@nd.gov.
