State park reservations begin Feb. 10

The 2015 camping season is just a few months away and reservations can be made at North Dakota State Parks beginning on Tuesday, Feb. 10, at 7 a.m.

State park full services begin Friday, May 15 and the 95-day reservation window allows visitors to make sure they have a campsite ready upon arrival. Online reservations can be made 24 hours a day with the exception of the first day of the 95-day window -- these reservations will be available at 7 a.m. The department's toll free call center hours are 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. everyday. In 2015, campsite reservations may be made for May 15 through Sept. 7, except for Fort Ransom State Park which will have reserved sites available through Sept 27. Stays are limited to 14 consecutive days unless otherwise noted.

All campsites at Grahams Island, Fort Abraham Lincoln and Lake Metigoshe State Parks can be reserved. The rest of the state parks will continue to offer about half of their sites for reservation and half first-come, first-served.

Cabins, yurts, tipis, shelters, and group facilities reservations may be made one year in advance. Reservations for campsites and cabins/yurts/tipis can be made until noon the day prior to arrival. Reservations may be made either online at www.parkrec.nd.gov or by calling our toll-free reservation line, 800-807-4723.
