The North Dakota Parks and Recreation Department invites you to discover the unique beauty and history of North Dakota by visiting its state parks, recreation areas, nature preserves and natural areas. These areas play an essential role in preserving the state’s history and the unique natural features defining North Dakota’s landscape and heritage.

Retrace the steps and glimpse into the lives of the Native Americans, trappers, traders, explorers, homesteaders and ranchers who came before us. This guide tells you about state parks that preserve cultural historic sites, areas visited by the Lewis and Clark Expedition, military forts and ethnic settlements. Visitors will find exciting recreational opportunities along our lakes and rivers, and unexpected wooded valleys, prairie vistas and rugged Badlands.

Whether you are a returning visitor or new to the state, we hope you enjoy your visit!
Beaver Lake State Park provides an escape from the rigors of everyday life, offering a relaxing atmosphere in a secluded outdoor setting next to a quiet lake. The lake is nestled among the gently rolling prairie that provides scenic views for leisurely walks.

The park has a colorful and historical background relating to the early settlers of Logan, McIntosh and Emmons counties. Park visitors can view a historic cairn that stands in the park as a testament to the efforts of those who helped establish the park.

Beaver Lake State Park offers primitive and modern camping as well as three camping cabins for those wanting to get away from it all. Park guests will find plenty to occupy their time. Whether it’s studying the area’s fascinating history, discovering the plentiful natural resources, taking advantage of refreshing water sports, hiking, mountain biking, fishing or just relaxing in the shade of an American elm.

DID YOU KNOW?
The first organized gathering to promote a state park in this area occurred on July 14, 1929 at Shepherd’s Pavilion, south of the present park site. In August of 1930, the land for the park was purchased. The park officially opened its doors to visitors in 1932.

Park improvements came slowly during the drought and depression of the 1930s. Beaver Creek was dammed in 1933, raising the level of the lake. In 1935, a Works Progress Administration (WPA) crew was assigned to the park to build roads and pathways, construct an earthen dock and to terrace the picnic area.

The modern campground located in the park was originally a half-mile horse racing track. It was once one of the state’s fastest courses.

ADDITIONAL AMENITIES
Boat ramp, flush toilets, picnic shelters, sewage dump station, showers, swim beach
Cross Ranch State Park is located along some of the last free-flowing and undeveloped stretches of the Missouri River. While exploring Cross Ranch State Park, visitors may find themselves traveling back in time, catching a glimpse of the landscape as it appeared to Native Americans inhabiting the area hundreds of years ago, or hearing the echoes of the Lewis and Clark Expedition making its way to the Pacific coast along the Missouri River.

Cross Ranch has nearly 17 miles of trails that cater to the adventurer all year long. This extensive trail system can be explored either on foot or cross-country skis during the winter months. The trail system allows access to a 5,000-acre nature preserve with mixed prairie grass, river bottom forests, woody draws, and roaming bison.

Cabins and yurts are available for overnight lodging along with two different campgrounds. A boat ramp is available for those wishing to explore this scenic segment of the river. Anglers will find walleye, trout, catfish, salmon, pike and bass in its waters.

Fort Abraham Lincoln State Park, established in 1907, is the oldest state park in North Dakota and provides a variety of unique adventures to travelers of all ages. Travel through time and explore rich culture and history of the area by investigating artifacts at the Visitor Center Museum. Visitors will gain insight into the lives of the Mandan Native Americans who once lived at On-a-Slant Village by venturing through our reconstructed earthlodges. Discover old Fort Abraham Lincoln, Fort McKeen and what life was like as a frontier soldier of the Seventh Cavalry. Journey through the blockhouses and furnished barracks and participate in a living history tour of the commanding officer’s quarters.

Hikers, bikers and horseback riders will gaze upon the breathtaking views of the Heart and Missouri river bottoms as they traverse the scenic trail system through the surrounding hills. Visitors can stay overnight in a cabin or one of over 100 campsites along the majestic rivers. Anglers can find success along the shorelines of both the Missouri and Heart rivers.

Fort Stevenson State Park is nestled in the bluffs along the north shore of Lake Sakakawea. With miles of trails, a wide variety of rental equipment, breathtaking views, and year-round special events, there is always something fun to do.

Fort Stevenson is three miles south of Garrison, the “Walleye Capital” of North Dakota, and is a preferred spot to experience a great day on the lake. Boaters will find excellent facilities, including two marinas with boat ramp access, boat rentals, and fish cleaning facilities.

The park is named after a late 1800s fort that served as a supply depot for other military posts in the Dakota Territory. Park visitors can learn about the military past by visiting the park museum or by attending the Frontier Military Days event in June.

Grahams Island State Park is located on the ever-changing shores of Devils Lake. This hidden treasure is heavily wooded and surrounded by miles of lakeshore. Campers will enjoy the large shaded campsites, in the only nonseasonal campground in the area.

The unique landscape of the lake makes it a hot spot for world-class fishing. Grahams Island hosts numerous national and regional fishing tournaments during the year. Grahams Island caters to anglers with an array of resources, including a bait shop, a four-lane boat ramp and a fish cleaning station.

Visitors can enjoy a day on the lake, take a stroll on the hiking trails or hang out at the Visitor Center. In the winter, visitors can explore over three miles of groomed cross-country ski trails and excellent access to the lake for ice fishing activities.

The Sivert Thompson Activity Center is nestled beneath the oak trees with beautiful views of the lake. This secluded section of the park is a picture-perfect backdrop for any event year-round. Two picnic shelters are also available for rent.

North Dakota’s homesteading spirit is evident at Icelandic State Park, located on the shores of Lake Renwick. Established in 1964, this 912-acre park allows visitors to learn about the state’s early settlement and provides an array of recreational opportunities. Boating, swimming, and fishing are a few favorite summer activities while snowshoeing, cross-country skiing, ice skating, sledding and ice fishing are popular during the winter. Picnic areas enable visitors to enjoy a relaxing afternoon in the shade of old oak trees.

Within the park, visitors will find a number of restored historic buildings, including Akra Community Hall and Hallson Church. Visitors can walk through the Pioneer Heritage Center that houses exhibits and hosts programming that highlights North Dakota’s homesteading years.

Visitors can also spend time exploring the three-mile trail system in North Dakota’s first dedicated state nature preserve, the Gunlogson Nature Preserve. The 200-acre natural wooded area along the Tongue River is a sanctuary for plants, birds, and wildlife. More than a dozen rare species exist in the preserve, ranging from Watermeal to Bishop’s Cap. The preserve also contains rare birds such as the Pileated Woodpecker and Western Wood-Pewee.

On the south shore of the third-largest man-made reservoir in the nation, lies Lake Sakakawea State Park. The park is surrounded by miles of lakeshore, providing stunning views. Visitors can spend time at the swim beach, camping beneath the trees, hiking on the trails, or out on the lake. Sail boaters and windsurfers can take advantage of North Dakota’s fabled wind on this 368,000-acre lake.

Lake Sakakawea is known for its premier fishing. The lake is home to walleye, northern pike and chinook salmon. Anglers can find a full-service marina, a convenience store, and a fish cleaning station. Boat ramps in the park offer deep water access to some of the best salmon fishing on the lake.

The park is also home to the Western Terminus of the North Country National Scenic Trail, a trail stretching 4,600 miles over eight states from Lake Sakakawea State Park in North Dakota to Vermont. The trail also passes through Fort Ransom State Park.

The marina has a functional elevation range from 1805 msl to 1855 msl and is protected by a concrete breakwater. Marina facilities are supported by Lakeshore convenience store, a gas dock, pump-out service, and boat and camper storage. A total of 74 slips ranging in size from 24-72 feet in length are available for seasonal rent along with three transient slips available for daily use.

Did You Know?
Chinook salmon are a sought-after catch for sporting anglers on the waters of Lake Sakakawea. The National Fish Hatchery, located just adjacent to Lake Sakakawea State Park, oversees the rearing of chinook salmon from eggs to fry, or young fish, that are then introduced into the lake by the North Dakota Game and Fish Department. Since 1976, Game and Fish have stocked chinook salmon to give anglers another species of fish to chase.

The deep and cooler waters near Lake Sakakawea State Park are ideal for the salmon to thrive. Each year in mid-August, the Great Planers Salmon Club holds their annual Salmon Derby at the park. Anglers from all ages take part in this fun, family event!

Additional Park Amenities
Boat ramp, concessions, dump station, fish cleaning station, full-service marina, horseshoe pits, picnic shelters, playgrounds, sand volleyball courts, electrical hookups, showers and flush toilets, swim beach, visitor center

Lewis and Clark State Park is situated on one of the upper bays of Lake Sakakawea. The park features miles of shoreline with picturesque views of towering buttes and rolling hills that provide a rugged backdrop for the park.

Modern boating facilities, including a marina with slip rentals and boat ramps, are major attractions. Anglers will find excellent fishing for walleye, sauger and northern pike.

Lewis and Clark State Park is home to the largest native mixed-grass prairie of any North Dakota state park. Visitors can become acquainted with the natural communities associated with the park by hiking a self-guided nature trail.

Visitors can also enjoy the swimming area and a day-use beach located along the east shore of the campground near the camping cabins. Kayaks, canoes, stand-up paddle boards, fat tire bikes and snowshoes are available for rent.

Located in the heart of the North Dakota Badlands, Sully Creek State Park is just minutes away from the historic town of Medora and Theodore Roosevelt National Park. This park offers a quiet escape from these popular tourist destinations.

Sully Creek is the perfect spot for visitors seeking adventure. In the early spring, canoeing and kayaking the Little Missouri River is a popular activity. Traversing the 274-mile long Little Missouri River offers a unique perspective of the badlands from North Dakota’s only State Scenic River.

Horseback riding, hiking and biking are also popular activities. The park provides access to the 144-mile long Maah Daah Hey Trail, which traverses the Little Missouri National Grassland.

HORSE INFORMATION
Blocks of corrals are assigned to each campsite. If bringing a horse into the park, a permit is required. Daily horse permit is $6/horse and an annual horse permit is $30/horse.

Constructed in the 1930s by the Civilian Conservation Corps, Turtle River State Park is located in a beautiful, wooded valley along the meandering Turtle River. The park features year-round recreational activities, including camping, picnicking, hiking, mountain biking, cross-country skiing, and sledding. Park guests enjoy shaded picnic areas and secluded camping sites. There are miles of trails carved through the forested hills and along the Turtle River. Anglers can also practice their fly-fishing techniques in the trout-stocked river.

Perfect for weddings, family reunions, and other group activities is the spacious Woodland Lodge, with its kitchen and dining hall. The CCC Memorial Shelter offers a picturesque setting and is popular for weddings and large group picnics.

The Pembina Gorge State Recreation Area encompasses over 2,800 acres of public land in the Pembina River Gorge. With steep valley cliffs towering over small, isolated prairies and pocketed wetlands surrounded by the largest continuous, undisturbed forest in North Dakota, its stunning beauty is simply unmatched. The Gorge is also rich in biodiversity, wildlife, history and paleontological resources.

With over 30 miles of trails, the Pembina Gorge provides visitors with an exceptional outdoor experience. Trails are open to horseback riding, hiking, mountain biking, OHV and snowmobiling. Visitors can find information on using motorized vehicles at parkrec.nd.gov. Equestrian users need either a daily or annual horse permit to use the trails. There are also opportunities for non-motorized recreation on groomed trails in the winter season.

Visitors can also experience the beauty of the Gorge from the water by kayaking down the only whitewater river in the state. Kayak rentals and transportation are available by contacting the park office, located in Walhalla.

RENTAL EQUIPMENT

- 22 single kayaks
- 4 double kayaks
- $8/hour
- $50/day

Life jackets and paddles included. Additional fee for drop-off/pickup service.
INTERPRETIVE PROGRAMS
Many of our locations feature themed weekend activities during the summer months, ranging from guided hikes to evening amphitheater programs. Interpretive programs and activities are designed for all ages to develop interest in the outdoors, pique curiosity and instill a deeper appreciation for culture, heritage, nature and outdoor recreation.

SELF-GUIDED ADVENTURES
Another way to enrich your experience while visiting a state park is to take on a self-guided adventure. Periodically throughout the year, watch for a variety of activities including scavenger hunts, bird and wildflower bingo, outdoor escape rooms and sensory hikes. Check social media or inquire upon arrival for any self-guided activities that may be going on during your state park visit.

YOUTH AND GROUP EVENTS
Park interpretive staff offer year-round opportunities for individuals and groups to participate in youth camps, demonstrations, tours and interpretive talks. Tickets, pre-registration or reservations are often required, so contact the park you’re interested in to inquire.

12 MONTHS-12 HIKES CHALLENGE
Hike one North Dakota state park trail each month of 2022 as part of the statewide 12 Months-12 Hikes Challenge. There are 21 qualifying hiking trails at 13 state parks that count toward completing the challenge. Participants who complete 12 self-guided hikes on qualifying trails by the end of the year earn a collectible 12 Months–12 Hikes medal. The more parks you visit, the better your chance of winning a free annual permit. Register online at parkrec.nd.gov/challenges and start exploring!

NORTH DAKOTA PASSPORT
With the North Dakota Passport, you can explore 37 destinations in four regions of the state and collect unique stamps along the way. Enjoy your adventures at the variety of North Dakota Parks and Recreation properties and State Historical Society of North Dakota locations. Packed with insider fun facts and must-see and do activities, the North Dakota Passport is your all-in-one guide to adventure! Buy yours at any state park or online at travel.parkrecnd.com.
