PARK HOURS

The park is open daily from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. for use year-round.

CAMPGROUND QUIET HOURS

Quiet hours are between 10 p.m. – 7 a.m. year-round.

FIREWOOD

To help prevent the spread of invasive species, we ask that visitors do not bring or use out-of-state firewood. Collecting firewood in the park is prohibited. Firewood is for sale at the Visitor Center and campground host site.

PETS ON LEASHES

Pets are welcome but must stay on a leash while in the state park.

EMERGENCY INFO

In an emergency dial 911. Find fire danger ratings and restrictions at ndresponse.gov.

MUST SEE & DO

- Take a self-guided interpretive hike on the inner loop of the Matah "River" Trail. Brochures are available at the trailhead or Visitor Center.
- Hike or snowshoe the Ma-ak-oti "Old Village" Trail to find one of Lewis & Clark's campsites along the Missouri River.
- Stop into the Visitor Center to learn more about the history of Native American life in the area in addition to river transportation and geology.
- Rent a canoe or kayak and explore the Missouri River. Ask our staff about transport for a nine-mile trip from Washburn to the Sanger boat ramp or a two-mile trip from the main campground to the Sanger boat ramp.

MORE TO EXPLORE

- Visit The Nature Conservancy Cross Ranch Preserve adjacent to the park to see mixed prairie grass, river bottom forests, woody draws and possibly even a roaming bison. This 5,000-acre preserve offers a two-mile trail open for hiking.
- A boat ramp is available on the south end of the park for those wishing to explore this scenic segment of the river by boat or for anglers to fish for walleye, trout, catfish, salmon, pike or bass.
- The park and nature preserve are home to a wide variety of animal life. With patience and a keen eye, hikers will be rewarded with sightings of deer, wild turkeys, hawks, an occasional bobcat or a bald eagle.

VISITOR TIPS

- Please follow speed limits. Keep an eye out for wild animals and respect their habitat by remaining a safe distance.
- Visitors are prohibited from collecting and removing any natural items or artifacts from the park or public trails.
- Camping: check-in is at 4 p.m., checkout is at 3 p.m.
- Overnight rentals: check-in is 4 p.m., check-out is at noon

VISITING IN WINTER

- Rent cross-country skis from the Visitor Center and venture down a groomed trail through the towering cottonwood trees on the park's north end.
- Snowshoes are also available for rent, and visitors can set out through the winter wonderland for over four miles on the Ma-ak-oti "Old Village" Trail, with an upper and lower loop at the south end of the park.
- Curl up by the fire in one of Cross Ranch's seven overnight rental facilities that are available year-round. Check out one of the cabins or yurts for your next cozy stay.
