INSET A: CAMPGROUNDS

SO EVERYONE CAN ENJOY THEIR VISIT

PARK HOURS

The state parks are open daily from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. for use year-round.

CAMPGROUND QUIET HOURS

Quiet hours are between 10 p.m. – 7 a.m. year-round. Generator usage is allowed from 8 a.m. – 8 p.m.

FIREWOOD

To help prevent the spread of invasive species, we ask that visitors do not bring or use out-of-state firewood. Collecting firewood in the park is prohibited. Purchase firewood at the Visitor Center or at a campground host site.

PETS ON LEASHES

Pets are welcome but must stay on a leash while in the state park. A dog park is located at the southeast end of the park.

EMERGENCY INFO

In an emergency dial 911. Find fire danger ratings and restrictions at ndresponse.gov.

MUST SEE & DO

- Take a hike on the Flicker Loop Trail where you'll see native grass varieties, small wooded ravine areas and a prairie dog town.
- Visit the Guardhouse Interpretive Center to step back in time and learn the story of the frontier military history of Fort Stevenson. The Guardhouse is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, Memorial Day to Labor Day.
- Spend the day at the beach or rent a boat for a cruise on the water. Make sure to stick around to view the spectacular sunset over Lake Sakakawea.
- Cool off with North Dakota-made ice cream from the concession store down by the Garrison Bay Marina. Juneberry is the crowd favorite!

MORE TO EXPLORE

- Fort Stevenson State Park hosts events all year round, including Maple Sugaring Day, Skyfest kite festival and an Evening Hike Series. Come for the day or make it a weekend by camping or renting a cabin.
- The park's summer rentals include aqua pads, fat-tire bikes, canoes, kayaks, fishing boats, pontoon, paddleboats, and stand-up paddleboards. Call ahead or rent some gear on the spot.
- Fort Stevenson is located on the northeastern part of Lake Sakakawea, the third-largest human-made lake in the United States. Grab a fishing rod and try your luck at the world-class fishing this lake is known for.

VISITOR TIPS

- Please follow speed limits. Keep an eye out for wild animals and respect their habitat by remaining a safe distance.
- Visitors are prohibited from collecting and removing any natural items or artifacts from the park.
- Camping: check-in is at 4 p.m., checkout is at 3 p.m.
- Overnight facility rentals: check-in 4 p.m., check-out noon

VISITING IN WINTER

- Fort Stevenson has a variety of groomed trails available for use in the winter. Fat-tire bikes, snowshoes, and nordic skis are available for rent in addition to kicksleds, a unique winter trail experience!
- Winter special events including luminary hikes and holiday geocaching adventures are just a few of the activities visitors can participate in.
- Bring your binoculars and look for bohemian waxwing, great horned owls, and red breasted nuthatch which are common to this area in the winter.
