MUST SEE & DO

- Explore six reconstructed earthlodges at the On-A-Slant Indian Village, which depict the lifestyle and culture of the Mandan Indians who occupied this site from about 1575-1781.
- Learn about the park's rich military history at the Visitor Center and military posts, along with a tour of the Commanding Officer's Quarters.
- Grab a trail guide from the Visitor Center and hike the Young Hawk Interpretive Trail to the three reconstructed blockhouses.
- Bring your fishing pole and cast a line from the shores of the Heart and Missouri rivers.

MORE TO EXPLORE

- Hike, bike or ride horseback on the multi-use trails that loop through prairies and woodlands, offering stunning panoramic views of the river valleys.
- Find the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) Worker Statue just outside the Visitor Center, which honors all the hard work of the young men who helped build much of the park's infrastructure in the 1930s.
- Enjoy a handcrafted espresso drink and browse the bookstore at the Commissary Store Gift Shop, open mid-May through mid-September.
- Camp along the scenic Missouri and Heart rivers or rent a cabin.

VISITING IN WINTER

- The park's Visitor Center and Museum are open year-round. View the nation's best display of Mandan artifacts and history, along with items of interest on Lewis and Clark, Far West River Boat, Fort McKeen Infantry Post, Fort Abraham Lincoln Cavalry Post and the Civilian Conservation Corps.
- Hike or snowshoe the Mato-Tope Trail and see how many migratory birds you can spot on the Missouri and Heart rivers.
- Take in one of the park's many year-round special events or participate in a monthly guided hike.
